Scope of the Journal

ISSN: 1477-5360 (Print), ISSN: 1741-8097 (Online)

IJISM's thematic focus is on research that investigates and improves integration along supply chains. IJISM seeks high-impact scholarly analytical and empirical research in integrated supply management from academics and professionals. It is discipline-agnostic. Supply chain integration can be a complex and challenging imperative involving industry 4.0 ecosystems, alignment of supply markets and consumers, associated organisational changes, and the creation and management of integrative relationships in the supply chain. Substantive research that addresses such issues is solicited.

Contents

IJISM publishes original, high-quality, analytical (quantitative models), empirical (surveys and case studies) and theoretical research manuscripts (literature reviews, thought pieces) from academics and practitioners.
